Whisky

Scotland

Scottish whisky or Scotch is known the world over and must fit very strict criteria. The spirit is first distilled to less than 94.8% before being aged in only oak barrels for at least 3 years. After this, distillers can only add caramel and water if they wish and the spirit must be bottled at 40% ABV or more

Ardbeg Ten Year Old - Single Malt (46%)

Revered around the world as the peatiest, smokiest, most complex single malt of them all. Yet it does not flaunt the peat; rather it gives way to the natural sweetness of the malt to produce a whisky of perfect balance

Ardbeg Uigeadail - Single Malt (54.2%)

Full flavoured and rich with a deep mouth-coating texture, the taste is an intriguing balance between sweet, spicy and deep smoky flavours. The flavour is initially sweet. A burst of winter spices sets off a smoky-spicy explosion countered by a sumptuous mid-palate of honey glazed smoked food and chewy treacle. Waves of deep smoky tones and rich aromas build up on the palate like a fine Montecristo cigar. Amazingly long and chewy with lingering raisiny, deep mocha tones and rich aromatic smoke into the perfectly integrated finish.

Arran Ten Year Old - Single Malt (46%)

The initial rush of rich vanilla sweetness gives way to a touch of cinnamon which adds a spicy edge to the soft and sweet texture. The classic Arran citrus notes have rounded with age and reveal new depths of character against a background of sweet oak.

Bunnahabhain Twelve Year Old - Single Malt (46.3%)

12 Year Old Islay Single Malt Scotch Whisky was the beginning of our Bunnahabhain core range, launched to fanfare and praise alike. Non-chill filtered and natural colour, taste the origins of Bunnahabhain with an alluring balance of sweet fruit, nuts, vanilla and a delicate coastal influence

The distillery has been producing fine whiskies for two centuries and is renowned worldwide for its quality and character. This expression enjoys the sherry influenced Glendronach is famed for, with slightly more woody notes beneath for an interesting and enjoyable bottle

Glenfarclas Fifteen Year Old

The Glenfarclas 15 Year Old single malt whisky, a masterpiece from the esteemed Glenfarclas Distillery in Speyside, Scotland, represents over 180 years of whisky-making excellence. This family-run distillery, established in 1836, is famed for its adherence to traditional distilling methods and the exclusive use of Oloroso sherry casks. These practices, including the rare technique of direct fire heating for stills, contribute to the distinctive richness and complexity of their whiskies.
